Amendment No. 2012-001 to Las Cruces Extra-Territorial Zoning
Ordinance No. 88-02, as previously amended:
Home Occupation and other ETZ Amendments

WHEREAS, the Amended Joint City/County Extra-Territorial Zoning and Subdivision Agreement ("JPA") was entered into between the City of Las Cruces and Doña Ana County on February 3, 1997; and,

WHEREAS, based on public input and staff review from the City of Las Cruces and Doña Ana County, the Extra-Territorial Zoning Commission (ETZ) held a public hearing and recommended the adoption of this amendment as required by said JPA, Section IV.A, "All proposed amendments of the Extra-Territorial Zoning Ordinance shall be made to the Commission. The Commission shall then make a recommendation to the Authority"; and,

WHEREAS, the Amendment follows the notice requirements of the ETZ Ordinance 2.1.G and New Mexico State Statute 3-21-14(B) &(D), NMSA 1978 and includes a clarification and expansion of some definitions, uses, home occupation permits, and accessory buildings in residential districts of the ETZ; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, the Extra-territorial Zoning Authority hereby approves and adopts the following amendments to the Las Cruces Extra-Territorial Zoning Ordinance No. 88-02, as previously amended, by adding the language indicated by underlining and deleting the language indicated by ~~strikethrough~~, with instructions in italics.

Section 1.6.A Add the following new definitions

26. AREA, GROSS—The total horizontal area within a lot or parcel of land before public streets, easements, or other areas to be dedicated or reserved for public use such as stormwater detention and retention facilities and irrigation canals and facilities are deducted from such lot or parcel.

27. AREA, NET—The total horizontal area of a lot or parcel, excluding all public streets or alleys, easements, or other publicly reserved or dedicated improvements such as stormwater detention and retention facilities and irrigation canals and facilities.

Section 1.6.B Delete the last sentence

6. BLOCK—Land surrounded on all sides by streets or other transportation or utility rights-of-way, or by physical barriers such as bodies of water or public open spaces. ~~Property bounded on one (1) side by a street, railroad, right-of-way, waterway, unsubdivided areas or other definite boundaries.~~

Section 3.4 HOME OCCUPATION PERMITS Delete original language and replace with new language.

A home occupation is permitted in a residential district subject to the following criteria:

- ~~3.4.A — No person, other than members of the family residing on the premises, shall be engaged in such home occupation.~~
- ~~3.4.B — The use of the dwelling unit for the home occupation shall be clearly incidental and subordinate to its use for residential purposes and not more than twenty five (25) percent of the floor area, not to exceed five hundred (500) square feet, shall be used in the conduct of the home occupation.~~
- ~~3.4.C — There shall be no change in the outside appearance of the building or premises, or other visible evidence of the conduct of such home occupation, and there shall be no open storage of business-related equipment or supplies.~~
- ~~3.4.D — There shall be no commodities sold at the residence in connection with such home occupation. Flammable products are prohibited.~~
- ~~3.4.E — No traffic shall be generated by such home occupation in greater volumes than would normally be expected in a residential neighborhood.~~
- ~~3.4.F — No equipment or process shall be used in such home occupation which creates noise, vibration, glare, fumes, odors or electrical interference detectable in adjacent areas and no equipment or process shall be used which creates visual or audible interference in any radio or television receivers off the premises.~~
- ~~3.4.G — Signs shall not be permitted to advertise the business or its products.~~
- ~~3.4.H — Storage in connection with any home occupation shall be totally enclosed within the home. Storage shall not exceed ten (10) percent of the floor area and shall not exceed two hundred (200) square feet.~~
- ~~3.4.I — No personal physical service in connection with such home occupation requiring the client to come to the residence shall occur within or at the residence.~~
- ~~3.4.J — No home occupation shall be conducted in any accessory building.~~
- ~~3.4.K — All home occupations shall be required to obtain an annual business license from the county clerk.~~

A. The purpose of a home occupation permit is to allow limited commercial endeavors involving the manufacturing, purchase, sale, lease, or exchange of goods, and/or the provision of services, within a residential dwelling, or accessory building associated with a residential dwelling, in circumstances where the home occupation is secondary and incidental to the primary residential use of the residential dwelling, or accessory building associated with a residential dwelling, provided the home occupation does not alter the exterior of the property or materially affect the residential nature of the neighborhood. For purposes of this section, the term "residential dwelling" shall include any accessory building associated with a residential dwelling.

B. It is a violation of this ordinance for any person or entity having legal or equitable ownership, or physical custody of, or control over, a residential dwelling, to operate, or to allow the operation of, a home occupation within such residential dwelling, regardless of zoning district, without first obtaining a home occupation permit in compliance with the requirements of this ordinance. In addition to the home occupation permit itself, the applicant for such permit must obtain a business registration in compliance with the Business Registration Fee provisions of Doña Ana County Code Chapter 154 and must comply with all other codes and ordinances, including, but not limited to, those relating to parking, landscaping, drainage and building requirements.

C. A home occupation may be permitted in any residential dwelling, subject to the following requirements and limitations:

1. No more than ~~five~~two (52) people, in excess of addition to the permanent occupants residing on the premises, shall be engaged, whether paid or not, in the home occupation. Additional people may be engaged in the home occupation only upon approval of a Special Use Permit, as provided for in Section 3.3.B.
2. The home occupation use of a residential dwelling or accessory building associated with the residential dwelling must be clearly incidental and subordinate to the primary residential use of the property, except for day care or child care services.
3. Any storage associated with the home occupation shall be completely enclosed within the residential dwelling, and such storage shall not exceed 600 square feet in area.
4. As a result of the home occupation, there must be no change in the outside appearance of the residential dwelling, or the premises, except as to signage described in the paragraph below, and there must be no other evidence of the conduct of a home occupation visible to the public.
5. Only one sign, one square foot in size, non-illuminated, free standing or mounted flush against the residential dwelling, shall be permitted which refers to the home occupation.
6. No equipment, material, or process shall be used in a home occupation that creates noise, glare, vibration, dust, fumes, odor or electrical interference detectable at the property line, or creates visual or audible interference with any radio, television receiver or computer on or near the premises, or that exceeds that which is normally found in a residential area.
7. There shall be no hazardous, explosive, highly flammable, combustible, corrosive, radioactive or other restricted materials used or stored on the premises of a home occupation beyond the amount normally kept at a residential dwelling for residential use. The use or storage of all such materials must comply with the Doña Ana County Fire Code.
8. The utility use associated with the home occupation must comply with the public utility rules and regulations applicable to residential dwellings.
9. Home occupation parking requirements:
 - a. On-street parking for customers or clients in connection with a home occupation shall be permitted only if the residential nature of the neighborhood remains unaffected.
 - b. No more than two customer or client vehicles shall be parked at or near a home occupation at any one time, except for instructional service, day care or child care services.
 - c. Vehicles larger than one ton in carrying capacity that are used in connection with a home occupation shall be stored or parked in a structure or other enclosure out of public view. Semi-trailer trucks, cabs and trailers with weight limitations shall not be used or stored in conjunction with a home occupation.

d. A home occupation shall not cause the elimination of any off-street parking required by law for the occupants of the dwelling unit.

D. Home occupation permits may be approved for the following activity categories: Professional Office, Professional Service, Instructional Service, Home Artisan Business, Small Item Repair Service, and Day Care/Child Care Service.

1. Professional Office includes offices for accountants, appraisers, architects, attorneys, contractors, engineers, financial planners, insurance agents, consulting services, real estate sales and similar office uses.
2. Professional Service includes home occupations involving computer programming and internet/website development, bed and breakfast establishments, beautician/hairdresser/barber services, direct distribution (Amway, Avon, Tupperware, etc.), maid services, mail order, massage therapy, ironing, pet grooming, telephone/fax answering, word processing and similar service uses. Beauticians/hairdressers/barbers and massage therapists licensed by the State of New Mexico shall be limited to one customer station per residential property for the home occupation.
3. Instructional Service includes educational tutoring, music instruction and similar instructional services. A maximum of five students may be at the dwelling at any one time.
4. Home Artisan Business shall include artist studios, cabinet making, dress making, engraving, furniture making, hobby crafting, jewelry making, sewing, tailoring, writing studios, small scale pickling/canning activity and similar uses.
5. Small Item Repair Service includes bicycle, computer, television, vacuum cleaner, locksmith, watch, tool, shoe and similar repair services.
6. Day Care/Child Care Service must be in compliance with state licensing regulations. Any Day Care/Child Care Service home occupation involving more than six children being at the residential dwelling at the same time shall be allowed only upon approval of a Special Use Permit, as provided for in Section 3.3 B.

E. The following activities shall be prohibited as home occupations: adult bookstores/video stores, adult amusement establishments, health and exercise facilities, motor vehicle repair services, tattoo/body piercing parlors, auto or truck repair, motorcycle repair, lawn mower repair, large appliance repair, internal combustion engine repair, and similar activities.

A-F. An activity not specifically enumerated under the activity categories listed above may be permitted by the Doña Ana County Community Development Director or designee if the applicant for a home occupation permit can establish that the proposed activity is reasonably similar in size, scope, use, and intensity as an enumerated home occupation activity.

G. Home Occupation Permit Approval.

1. Application. Application for a home occupation permit must be submitted to the Doña Ana County Community Development Department on an official form developed for that purpose along with payment of any application fee as established by resolution of the Extra-territorial Zoning Authority. The proposed home occupation activity shall be reviewed for compliance with all applicable statutes, ordinances, and regulations.
2. Review and scope. As part of the review and approval process, the applicant for a home occupation permit shall provide a site plan, which at a minimum shall consist of a scaled drawing showing lot line dimensions, the location, dimensions and setbacks of all structures, driveway access, parking areas, and proposed signage. In addition, the County may require an applicant for a home occupation permit to submit additional documentation describing in detail the equipment, materials, or processes to be used in connection with the home occupation, and to allow inspection of the premises proposed for home occupation in order to determine compliance with all applicable statutes, ordinances, and regulations. Applications for home occupation permits that do not meet the requirements of this section or the requirements of all other applicable statutes, ordinances or regulations shall be denied.
3. Business Registration. A home occupation permit, although approved, shall not be effective until the applicant obtains a Tax Identification Number from the State of New Mexico and a Doña Ana County business registration approved by the Doña Ana County Community Development Department.
4. Renewal. The business registration associated with a home occupation permit must be renewed on an annual basis on an official form developed by the Doña Ana County Clerk's Office for that purpose. A home occupation permit need not be renewed unless there is a material change in the home occupation activity, or its location, or there is a material increase in the permitted activity's size, scope, or intensity from that originally permitted.
5. Expiration. The home occupation permit shall remain in effect until such time as the home occupation activity is no longer in operation as originally approved, the annual business registration is not renewed or approved, or it is determined that a violation of the home occupation provisions of this ordinance or the provisions any other applicable statute, ordinance, or regulation has occurred, and the home occupation permit or business registration is revoked.

H. Revocation of home occupation permit; enforcement.

1. A home occupation permit may be revoked for the violation of, or noncompliance with, the provisions of this ordinance, or any other statute, ordinance, or regulation relevant to the home occupation activity. In addition, a home occupation permit may be revoked upon:
 - a. A non-permitted material change in home occupation activity, or a change in location, or a material increase in the permitted activity's size, scope, or intensity from that originally permitted.
 - b. A failure by the applicant to maintain a valid business registration or other license required for the home occupation.

- c. A failure by the applicant to allow reasonable inspection of the approved premises at reasonable times for the purpose of determining compliance with the home occupation provisions of this ordinance.
 - d. The submission of false or materially misleading information on a home occupation permit application.
2. Any home occupation permit shall, upon revocation, become null and void, and any use of the property approved under such home occupation permit shall immediately cease.
3. Home occupation inspections. As a condition of approval of a home occupation permit, an applicant shall be deemed to consent to reasonable inspection of the approved premises at reasonable times by County officials, including Community Development staff, law enforcement, and codes enforcement officers, for the purpose of determining compliance with the provisions of this ordinance.
4. Prior to revoking a home occupation permit or taking other enforcement action for a violation of the home occupation provisions of this ordinance, the County shall notify the applicant listed on the home occupation permit of such violation by certified mail, to the address listed on the home occupation permit application. Enforcement action may include, but is not limited to, revocation of a home occupation permit and prosecution in Magistrate or District Court. The notification shall include:
- a. A specific description of the violation.
 - b. The specific actions to be taken by the applicant that are necessary to correct the violation.
 - c. A demand that the violation be corrected within a specific period of time not to exceed 30 calendar days from the date of the notice. The demand may specify a reasonable period of time less than 30 calendar days for violations having a material adverse impact upon public health or safety.
 - d. A description of further action the County may take if the violation is not corrected within the specified time period.
5. If the violation is not corrected within the time period stated in the demand notice, the County shall send notice of the revocation of the home occupation permit by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the address provided on the home occupation permit application, at least five (5) calendar days prior to the effective date of the revocation and the initiation of any other enforcement action, including, but not limited to, prosecution in court.
6. Any person aggrieved by the revocation of a home occupation permit may, within ten (10) business days from the effective date of the revocation, appeal to the Extra-territorial Zoning Commission by filing with the County Planning Director written notice stating the nature of the appeal and the specific reasons therefore. The Extra-territorial Zoning Commission shall hold a quasi-judicial public hearing to receive evidence on the appeal, and by majority vote of the total membership of the Commission, may reverse or affirm (in whole or in part), or may modify, the revocation of the home occupation permit.

7. The notice, demand, and revocation procedures set forth above, shall not be required when home occupation activities are being conducted without a home occupation permit in violation of this ordinance. Such violations may be enforced as any other violation of this ordinance may be enforced.

Section 7.1 ACCESSORY BUILDINGS Reduce rear and side yard setbacks and increase building size to meet setback requirements, and add "or front yard setback" to item No. 5.

7.1.A HEIGHT AND SETBACK REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL RESIDENTIAL DISTRICTS

1. A minimum distance of ten (10) feet, measured eave to eave, from the primary structure.
2. A minimum distance of ~~ten (10)~~ five (5) feet from side and rear property lines for any accessory building of six hundred (600) square feet or less gross floor area.
3. Accessory buildings larger than ~~four~~ six hundred (400 600) square feet or taller than fifteen (15) feet shall meet all minimum setback requirements
4. A maximum height up to the height of the primary structure, not to exceed of twenty five (25') feet. shall be allowed.
5. No accessory building shall project beyond the front of the primary dwelling unit or front yard setback for all lots that are one-half (1/2) acre or less, except as herein provided.
